

Volunteer Opportunities for Groups at Christian Library International

Christian Library International is actively seeking youth and adult volunteers to help process and ship Christian books to the prisons. Your efforts will bless prison inmates for years to come. CLI is conveniently located off the Beltline at New Bern Road. To schedule your group and for directions please call 212-8122.

About CLI: Christian Library International serves prison inmates through Christian books, Bibles and the CLI correspondence Bible study in over 1,000 US prisons, jails and youth detention centers in all 50 states. Our materials are donated by churches, Sunday schools, individuals, publishers, authors and Christian bookstores. All materials are sent free of charge.

Christian Books Change Lives

Donate your used Christian books and Bibles to Christian Library International, a ministry that distributes them to about 1,000 US prisons and jails in all 50 states.
For more information see www.cli-nc.org

Book Processing

1. Receiving and Sorting:

Count each book donation and record the donor's name and address.

Sort books according to categories, e.g. Bible studies, fiction, hard cover, paperback, etc. Sorter should have a good knowledge of Christian authors and publishers.

2. Stamping:

Stamp all donated books with the CLI stamp.

3. Packing:

Pack books in CLI boxes. Use a tape gun to assemble and seal the boxes. CLI boxes weigh about 35 lbs each.

